KARACHI

Two Days Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) Standards Training on Sustainability Reporting

To enhance understandability of GRI standards, keep abreast with latest updates in GRI Standards and strengthening reporting practices, CSRCP presents “GRI Standards Training on Sustainability Reporting”. CSRCP has been actively playing its role in promotion of sustainability reporting in Pakistan through consultancy, training, assurance and research on sustainability since 2010. CSRCP is a leading sustainability advisory firm in Pakistan that remained GRI's Certified Training Partner in Pakistan (2015-2019), GRI's Gold Community Member and GRI's official data partner.

GRI standards are globally used by organizations for preparation of sustainability reports. Almost 67% of the largest 100 companies in 41 countries and 73% of worlds' largest 250 companies use GRI standards.

The training course comprises of six sections – an introduction and background which includes the business case for sustainability reporting, an overview of the GRI Standards, GRI Standards, using GRI Standards for preparation of sustainability reports, assurance of sustainability reports and SDGs reporting.
